Just Say Om

FIVE NEW YOGA SPOTS TO TRY NOW IN ATLANTA.

—Karina Timmel Antenucci

1.

Atlanta Yoga Collective

Go deep into postures at this Buckhead studio with a house style based on anusara yoga. The focus is on alignment, breath-attuned movement and progressive sequencing. $17 per class, atyogacollective.com

2.

Atmasphere

Leave your car with the valet and enjoy 10,000 square feet of this swanky wellness studio in Buckhead that includes two heated yoga rooms with surround sound and a group meditation hall. $15 per class, liveatmasphere.com

3.

CorePower Yoga

Get ready to sweat at one of this new Buckhead studio's challenging hot or power yoga classes, which help you build core strength while detoxifying the body. $23 per class, corepoweryoga.com

4.

Form Yoga

Play with your vinyasa flow during music-driven classes with names like Hips Don't Lie (focused on opening and strengthening hips) and Face Down Asana Up (explores arm balances, backbends and inversions) in Decatur. $15 per class, formyoga.com

5.

Infinity Yoga

Sample all different forms of yoga, from vinyasa to ashtanga to iyengar, at Infinity's Brookhaven and Dunwoody locations. If you're a runner or cyclist, try the Yoga for Athletes classes, specifically geared to "oil the joints." $17 per class, infinityyogaatlanta.com

NAMASTE, Y'ALL Atmosphere's swanky 10,000-square-foot studio offers a posh place to practice poses.
